

Solution Stage: Leadership Ideas Worth Spreading

Thursday, November 15th, 2018

Time: 15:30-17:00

Location: Upper Floor

Moderation

Monika Kolb, Conference Coordinator

Speakers

Simone Burel

LU-Kommunikation

Henning Ohlsson

Henning Ohlsson joined Epson in 2004 and is the Managing Director of Epson Deutschland GmbH in Meerbusch. In October 2016 he also took the role of Epson Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Director for EMEAR. Prior to joining Epson, Henning held the position of General Manager at Motorola and was responsible for Central and Eastern Europe, Middle East and Africa. He has many years of international experience in marketing and sales within both the consumer electronics (Nokia) and IT (IBM) industry.

Mathias Schüz

Prof. Dr. phil. Mathias Schüz studied physics, philosophy and education. He held top leadership positions for almost twenty years. Since 2006, he has been teaching and conducting research on applied business ethics and responsible leadership at the Zurich University of Applied Sciences (ZHAW), School of Management and Law. He has published numerous books on the subject.

Gerald Steiner

Gerald Steiner is a Full Professor of Organizational Communication and Innovation, Dean of the Faculty of Business and Globalization, and Head of the Department for Knowledge and Communication Management at Danube University Krems in Austria. He is a former Schumpeter Professor and Visiting Scholar at Harvard University's Weatherhead Center for International Affairs (WCFIA). Now, at Danube University with its strong transdisciplinary orientation, he connects organizational and global perspectives. Here, he also (co)founded three transdisciplinary labs: (1) Transdisciplinarity Laboratory Sustainable Digital Environments (SDE TdLab); (2) Transdisciplinary Laboratory for Sustainable Mineral Resources (SMR TdLab); (3) GovLab Austria. Furthermore, he is a co-initiator of the Asian, European, and North American Expert Roundtables on 'Sustainable Digital Environments' and Co-Director of the PhD Program in Migration Studies as well as Founder and Co-Director of the Biodiversity Hub Lower Austria.