

Expert Insights:
Advancing Corporate Governance
to Achieve Global Goals & Sustainability Standards

Thursday, November 15th, 2018

Time: 15:30-17:00

Location: Lower Floor B

Chair

Jellie Molino, University of Turin

Speakers

Tamas Barko

Tamas Barko is a postdoctoral researcher at the University of Mannheim. He graduated from Tilburg University with a Ph.D. in finance. His research interests include the intersections of corporate social responsibility, corporate governance, and law and finance.

Johannes Bohnen

Dr. Johannes Bohnen is the founder and managing director of BOHNEN Public Affairs and founder of the non-profit organization Atlantische Initiative (atlantic-community.org). He is an expert in strategic communication, political analysis and campaigning, with topics ranging from education to citizen participation to Political Branding and Corporate Political Responsibility.

Laivi Laidroo

Laivi Laidroo is an Associate Professor at the School of Business and Governance at the Tallinn University of Technology. Her research interests cover different aspects of disclosure practices of companies (especially banks) with a special focus on CSR related aspects. She has also written numerous papers related to finance and covering different topics related to capital markets, banking and digitalization in finance.

Jellie Molino

Jellie Molino is a PhD in Law and Institution scholar under the PhD Course XXXIII Cycle of the University Turin in Italy. She has well-rounded experience in public management by being a former vice president of two of the biggest state universities in the Philippines - Pangasinan State University and Batangas State University. She has an experience in international procurement as former legal and procurement specialist in the Office of General Counsel (OGC) at Asian Development Bank (ADB). She holds three graduate degrees from reputable institutions, to wit: 1) Master of Law (LL.M.) in Government Procurement and Environmental Law from The George Washington University Law School (GWU Law School) in Washington, DC, USA; 2) Executive Master in Business Administration from the Asian Institute of Management in Makati, Philippines; and 3) Doctor of Jurisprudence from the University of Batangas in Batangas City, Philippines. She is a member of the Philippine Bar since April 2007 and has a robust experience in the practice of administrative law, procurement law, anti-corruption law, environmental law, and commercial law in the Philippines.

Andrew Nixon

Andrew Nixon is pursuing a Master's of Arts in Management with the College of Business and Economics at the University of Guelph, in Ontario, Canada. The University of Guelph is Canada's Food University and Andrew's research is focused on the governance of change in agricultural innovations systems. His work centers on understanding how managers can more efficiently and effectively create systems-level changes through introducing new technologies and products.

He has also led efforts on campus to support indigenous food sovereignty. Andrew was a member of the inaugural Food From Thought Graduate Research Assistant program and his Master's research is funded through a SSHRC Canada Graduate Scholarship, the highest award a graduate student can receive in Canada. Andrew is heavily involved in the university community, having founded a new interdisciplinary club on campus for students, staff, and faculty passionate about agri-food. Andrew maintains connections to the agri-food industry through management consulting work with Ferrero.